Assertion Made That Mrs. Eddy Owns City of Boston

-Horace T. Wentworth Tells of Her Life at His Mother's Home in Stoughton:

Boston, March 18,-An anonymens crek an accounting of her estate, started an investigation which resulted in the discovery resteries, that Mrs. Eddy undoubtedly owns city of Reston bonds. Science churen, as the sam total of her holdings could not be ascertained, owing to an unwritten rule of those in charge of the records at City ball not to convey any information to the public where bonds of the city of Boston are concerned. Nevertheless, one of Auditor Michell's assistants indirectly admitted that there were bonds in Mrs. Eddy's name, when he remarked to a Herald reporter, perhaps unwittingly: "I can say right off hand that the amount nors not nearly reach the $200,000 mark which you way is the figure reported No I cannot say anything more about Why? Well simply because our orders are not to give out any informa tion whatever regarding city bonds. Surry, but that's the rule here. Why we our bond a conts!"

ON STATE CO-OPERATION

Melien Asks Interview-Other Magnates May-President Holds Federal Control of Railroads Is as Exclusive as of Rivers.

Washington, March 18.-Charles E. Hughes, governor of New York, will came to Washington at the invitation of Presdent Roosevelt to confer about the rail-oad situation. No time has been set, but it is stated officially at the White House that Hughes will be invited here before the next meeting of Congress. President Roosevelt makes the announcement at this time so that there will be no speculation about his visit when Governor Hughes does come, if other important questions are pending at that

Questions affecting the railroad situ-ation occupied much of the attention of President Roosevelt Saturday, During the morning there were informal talks with some of his callers on the subject; a despatch came from President Mellen of the New York, New Haven and Hart-ford railroad, asking when it would be convenient for the president to see him, and in the afternoon there was a visit LARGEST CRUISER IN THE WORLD
